A BLOODY BATTLE.

A BLOODY BATTLE.

Both French and German reports unite in declaring the battle one of the most sanguinary since the struggle for the ridge of Douaumont. The French fully resilise the far-reaching effect of German success in this sector, and regard for saving men has not handicapped their defense.

About Le Mort Homme and protecting the west bank of the Meuse, Gen. Joffre has thrown the greatest part of his reserves. The east bank of the river, the main front of the Verdun fortress, is amply secured by the heavy batteries with which it has literally been planted. As long as the German attack was directed there only enough infantry was needed to cover the guns.

COMMENT ON THE SITUATION.

In their attempts to hank Verdun on the west the Germans, having succeeded in working their way through the Malancourt and Avocourt woods, have begun a heavy bombardment of the village of Esnea, about eight miles northwest of Verdun and Hill 304 which lies about a mile and a half north of Esnea. The French, however, are vigorously contesting a further advance which not alone would bring the German line nearer the fortress, but spreading fanlike northeastward, would put in jeopardy the French in the region of Le Mort Homme. There has been lively fighting between the Russians and the Germans west of Jacobstadt, along the Dvina River and in the lake region between Dvinsk and Vilna with the Russians generally on the offensive. While Berlin reports these attacks as having been repulsed with heavy losses, the admission is made that a German salient near Lake Narocs was withdrawn in order to escape the encircling fire of the Russians. Near Butzitiscski, midway between Dvinsk and Vilna, the Russians have captured advanced German renches, and just south of Dvinsk, in the region of Novo Alexandrovsk, have repulsed a German counter attack on positions taken at Velikoieselo. tion may be utilized soon in the in-terest of peace in Europe. Within the last four days Chancellor von Beth-mann-Hollweg of Germany has conveyed to Ambassador James W. Ge-rard in Berlin a general idea of the peace terms Germany is willing to dispeace terms Germany is willing to dis-cuss. Furthermore, Mr. Gerard re-ceived a strong intimation from the same quarter that it will be inad-visable for him to take a vacation at this time, as he had planned. Mr. Ge-rard has changed his plans, therefore, and awaits further communications from the German Chancellor.

No reason was given in the course of the conversation either for its nature or form. No request was made relative to the use to be made of the information but it is not going too far to say that the impression conveyed is that it was a "feeler." differing from numerous other "feelers" put out in the last few months, in that it is official. It is to this phase that more than ordinary consideration is attached by persons on the inside here. It is the first authoritative conversation on the subject of peace that has yet taken place. Whether anything tangible comes of it is admittedly another matter.

At present this government is not sure how far it will be justified in proceeding on the basis of this conversation. It is probable, however, that a quiet intimation may soon be sent to Ambassador Page in London, with a view to sounding out the situation there before official steps are taken.

Germany and the allies are ready to make substantial concessions from their published terms.

GERMAN TERMS.

Germany, it is believed, is willing to return to the status quo ante, with certain modifications. Most striking of these is her willingness not only to relinquish Belgium, but to "help in its restoration," presumably through the payment of an indemnity or the remittal of war taxes collected there. In return for this she will demand certain colonial concessions from Great Britain.

ALLIES TERMS.

The Entente allies have abandoned the slogan "Germany must be ground greater than take chances with the people's confidence in his heir. SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) March 21.—
Gen. Frederick Funston asked the War Department today for more troops to send into Mexico, only after long consideration of the advisability of continuing the operations egainst Francisco Villa with the forces now commanded by Gen. Pershing. Gen. Pershing suggested yesterday that another regiment be sent to him and today Gen. Funston asked the department for what he characterized as an adequate force.

It was announced at Gen. Funston's headquarters that the Fifth Cavalry. of which one squadron is at Fort Meyer, Va., another at Fort Leavenworth. Kan. and the third at Fort Sheridan, Ill., would be brought to the border at once and sent forward along Gen. Pershing's line of communication to Casas Grandes.

The only reason given for strengthening Gen. Pershins's forces, known by the public generally to be considerably more than 4000, was that his field of operations had become so extended that his main line of communication and the subsidiary lines were much weaker than they should be. "Merely a precautionary move," was the way Gen. Funston answered all questions.

EW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 21.—Dr. T. Iyenaga, a prominent Japanese in charge of the Bursau of the East and West in the Weelworth Building, commenting today on the dispatches saying that Japan was reported to be demanding a free hand in China and threatening otherwise to form a German alliance, said that, although he believed the Anglo-Japanese treaty was the best for tha two countries concerned, there was much criticism of it in the press of his native land.

"And if England proves lukewarm toward Japan," he said, "It might well be that Japan would fly into Germany's arms. There have been so many changes wrought by war. For instance, Russia and Japan, ten powers ago at sword's point, are now work-ing together. Who knows what might befall? The situation now is most interesting. If Germany should make a good showing at Verdun she would follow up her advantage by making a movement against Russian troops in Asia Minor.

ADVICE TO SAMPLE.

Radio advices to Maj. W. R. Sample, commandant here, received today from Capt. B. D. Foulois at Cassa Grandes, commanding the Aero Corps, reported that Lieut. Robert H. Williss and Lieut. Edgar S. Gorrell, who left here last Sunday afternoon, each on an army aeropiane, had failed to arrive at the advanced base and that no reports of the missing men or their biplanes had been received.

Immediately instructions were issued to drivers of every motor truck leaving here to watch for traces of the missing men and their planes.

The eight planes started from here late Sunday for the flight over 110 miles of desert and mountains through the Cassa Grandes Valley to join the expeditionary force. Neither of the men was accompanied by a mechanician or an observer.

Tonight army men admitted that with the two filers forty-eight hours overdue at Cassa Grandes there is much concern for their safety. Members of the Aero Corps cling to the hope that they may have encountered engine difficulties and been forced to land for repairs in some unfrequented region.

Funston is worried to any extent by reports of alleged growing antagonism among Carranaa troops, although he is carefully studying all reports, official and unofficial; on that phase of the stuation.

It has not been forcetten at his sadquarters, however, that Villa has many more troops somewhere in Northern Mexico than the few hundred said to be riding with him on his flight before the pursuing troops of the small phase of the two countries. Realising the mobile character of Villa's bands it was not considered wise to expose too much of Gen. Pershing's lines.

THE VILLA CHASE.

The chase for Villa has assumed the proportions of a campaign and it was pointed out that if it became necessary to extend the operations much more, it might be necessary to move into the field almost all the remaining available forces of the regular army. At the same time it would be necessary to leave some 10,000 men to guard the Mexican border.

Scores of demands for protection are being made at Gen. Funston's headquarters by farmers and committees from towns along the border. These petitioners have insisted that they feared more raids and many of them offered what appeared to them as evidence that raids might be expected. It has been possible in almost all cases to shift the forces in order to give them special protection, but Gen. Funston does not care to remove the troops from their stations that are within reach of most of the more populous points along the frontier.

Gen. Funston was advised from Washington today that $20,000 had been placed to his credit for the payment of the services of guides, scouts, interpreters and other civilians it might become advisable tožemploy. Already Gen. Pershing is using many Americans as scouts. They are men said to be familiar with every trail and water hole in that part of Mexico.

The work of the scouts, it was expected, would be supplemented by the aviators, six of whom have arrived at Casas Grandes. Lieut T. R. Bowen, who fell with his machine on the flight from the border to Casas Grandes, was only slightly injured, according to an official report to Gen. Funston.

NO REPORTS IN. NO REPORTS IN.

It was stated late today at Gen Funston's headquarters that no report from Gen, Pershing regarding the operations against Villa south of Casas Grandes was received today Unofficial reports regarding Villa's fight with Carransa forces at Cruces and Namiquipa, south of Galena, were the American column of cavalry that the American column of cavalry that was advancing southward on the trail leading to Cruces encountered Villa was merely a guess at headquarters.
Failure of the field wireless at Casas Grandes was not regarded at headquarters here as significant, since it had been "in trouble" a large part of the time. Frequently there have been long intervals when the operators were unable to reach the station on the frontier, and officers here tonight were inclined to believe that this interruption was due, like the others, to atmospheric conditions and the weakness of the wireless set.

The wires that were reported cut between Casas Grandes and Juarez are far to the east of Gen. Pershing's line of communication and were not used by him for transmission. They parallel for a greater part of the way the Northeastern Railway.

The field wire or "busser" that was interrupted south of Columubs was used only for communication by the station near the border. Gen. Pershing depends entirely upon his wireless. The official reports received here said the interruption was due to accidental breaking by American soldiers, probably by cavalry riding over it.

Late tonight it was said at Gen. Funston's headquarters that he had not yet received any message from Gen. Pershing relative to the operations beyond Casas Grandes.

bear the main brunt of battle. For this reason the few heights like Le Mort Homme and the Cote de l'Ole are of particular importance. They dominate practically the whole country until the high plateau in the immediate vicinity of Verdun itself is reached. Even here there are only three forts as against the eighteen or more on the Douaumout side of the river, to bar the way.

Some appreciation of the value the Germans have set on the capture of Le Mort Homme is seen in their employment of the famous Bavarian and Wurtemburg regiments. Ranking in valor with the Prussian Guard they have been employed by the German staff only in the most dangerous and responsible attacks.

It was the Bavarians that were hurled on the British at Ypres. They were the hammer which Von Hindenburg used last spring to batter his way through the Bussian lines to Warsaw.

OKLAHOMA CONTESTS.

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) March 21.—The State Republican Committee met here tonight to hear claims of contested delegates to the State con-vention, which will be called to order tomorrow at 10 a.m. The committee will be in session all night.

Upon the decision of the various contests depends, in a large measure, the election of a national committeeman Wednesday. James A. Harris of Wagoner, present committeeman, claims a majority of the 556 delegates. Similar claims are made by J. J. McGraw of Ponca City.

Contests from the following counties are being heard:
Stephens, nine delegates; Muskogee, twenty-seven; Cherokee, thirteen; Creek, twenty-two and Kiowa, twelve.

Sixty-fourth Congress, HAY ARMY BILL

BEING RUSHED

Measure is Likely to Pass in the House Today.

Important Amendments are Added During Debate.

increase bill, it was found impossible to reach a vote before adjournment. It may be passed tomorrow, "Calendar Wednesday" having been set aside to permit its uninterrupted considera-be invited to participate in the peace negotiations.

The announcement regarding Belgium was made by Sir Edward Grey, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, who informed the House of Commons to day that Great Britain. France and Russia had made the declaration to Belgium that when the time came she would be invited to participate in the peace negotiations:

A guarantee was given to Belgium, Sir Edward Grey said, that the powers would not cease hostilities until the had been reinstated in her political and economical independence and largely indeunified "for the wrongs the has suffered."

The Entente allies, the Secretary added, would also lend their aid to help her financially.

REPUBLICANS HEAR

RESERVE OFFICERS.

The most important amendment was the insertion of the reserve officers' training scheme proposed by Representative Gard of Ohio, Democrat, which already has been included in the Senate bill. It provides that military instructors be supplied by the War Department to any civil educational institution with an available student body of 199 or more, and where a military course satisfactory to the War Department is established. A sufficient number of graduates would be designated for six months' additional training for the regular army to maintain a corps of 50,000 reserve officers.

Another amendment accepted, offered by Representative Kahn, would permit the President to order out the regular army reserve without going to Congress for authority. The contemplated strength of the reserve is 60,000, and as the bill now stands, the President could increase the regular army from its peace strength of 140,000 to a strength of 225,000 by executive order if war seemed imminent.

TO SUPPLY ARMS.

TO SUPPLY ARMS.

The last amendment adopted was offered by Representative Tilson, Republican of Connecticut, a member of the committee. It would authorize the Way Department to have constructed all the tools and fixtures necessary to convey private munition. structed all the tools and fixtures necessary to convey private munition plants for the manufacture of army rifles, cannon and ammunition. The fixtures would be stored by the government in peace times, but could be fitted to the machines of commercial plants in a few days, mobilizing the whole war machinery industry of the country behind the fighting lines. Details of the plan will be worked out in the army appropriation bill to be considered later. It has been exilmated, however, that the fixtures alone would cost $15,000,000 or more.

March 19 a torpedo boat and a cruiser shelled the neighborhood of Seddul-Bahr and Teke Burnu. The bombardment was unsuccessful and the ships with two machine guns advanced in the direction of Ell Saile, north of Shelk Hosman, and was attacked by the considered later. It has been exilmated, however, that the fixtures alone would cost $15,000,000 or more.

HAIR COMING OUT?

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that — makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your in sides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing — almost marry velous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

JOSEPH OF CHIC

Last Day of Big Club O

Good as This One

Of the eight remaining days of The Times big automobile campaign, today is by far the most valuable. New subscriptions turned in before 9 o'clock tonight are worth more votes than they will ever be later. This is positively the last club offer to be given.

80,000 Bonus Votes on 5-Year Clubs

Think of the tremendous vote value a five-year club has 80,000 votes in addition to all the regular votes issued on each individual subscription. Any bonafide new daily subscription may be included in a club, whether it be for one month or up to two years. You may turn in as many clubs as you desire, and all will receive full credit.

$75 in Gold Free

Enough for your vacation, or a whole new outfit of Spring finery. This $75 will be given to the candidate who turns in during the special offer period the largest sum in new subscription payments.

Do Your Best Today - It's the Day of Days

Never Another Chance as Special Offer of 80,000 Bonus Votes and $75 in Gold Closes Tonight at 9 o'Clock.

This is the big day for candidates in The Times big automobile and prize campaign. Promptly at 9 o'clock this evening the liberal 80,000 bonus vote offer comes to a close, and some candidate will win $75 in gold.

Only a few hours more, and the very last club offer of the campaign will have passed beyond recall. Those candidates who have spent well their time during the ten days of the offer will enjoy a feeling of keen satisfaction at having availed themselves of its liberal opportunities, its limitless possibilities to gain thousands of votes that win the sixteen handsome automobiles.

The stage is set; today is expected to be an overwhelming one in the matter of new subscriptions turned in and votes cast, and preparations are being made to care for an enormous onrush. The few hours today will be taken advantage of by practically every one of the candidates, for much can be accomplished in the time that still remains.

In order that candidates who reside in outside districts may have as much time to devote to this offer as the candidates in Los Angeles, the Campaign Manager will accept all subscription clubs received, providing the letters containing them bear a postmark not later than 9 o'clock tonight. In this way the outside candidates can work until the very last hour in order to gain the thousands of additional votes that are offered.

This splendid opportunity of strengthening vote reserves should not be passed up, for it is the last chance to get so many votes

Every minute counts today. Every time the hands on the clock revolve the chances of amassing substantial additions in votes slip by, and it seems to be the concensus of opinion that no hour will pass today but what will show gratifying results.

Mapy of the candidates have stated that today is the day in which they are going to hustle around until the last minute. The knowledge that the last club offer is about to pass has spread into every district, and much hurry is in evidence everywhere.

In a great number of cases contestants have secured promises of subscriptions during the earlier part of the campaign, and it is the intention of these young women to make a strong appeal for these subscriptions today, in order to form as many five-year clubs as possible.

Second payments are also providing a valuable source of votes. Subscribers who paid for The Times for only a short period, when the campaign first started, are glad to renew their subscriptions for a longer period if approached, and this is what many of the candidates purpose doing.

Watch The Times daily for important developments that may occur during the last week of the ampaign. And don't forget that today is your best chance of making sure that one of the sixteen plendid automobiles will be yours when the end of the campaign is at hand. One week from today he struggling finish comes. Will you be prepared?

Last Count Today

The standings which appear today include every coupon, every subscription ballot and every vote published throughout the campaign up to noon yesterday. These votes as published today will not be counted again, as the final count will be of the reserve votes, and votes secured from now on will be deposited in the ballot box during the final days. If this count is not absolutely correct according to your figures, kindly notify the Campaign Manager immediately, so that proper correction can be made before the close of the campaign. If you reside in an outside district use the telegraph or telephone immediately to notify us of any errors.

If you are entered from the wrong district, or know of some other candidate listed incorrectly here, please communicate this to the Campaign Manager at once.

Be Careful About "Old" and "New" Subscribers

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER is any person to whom The Tregularly delivered either by The Times or one of its route or by mail, on the opening day of this campaign (Januarakee no differance whether payment for the paper with month or for a longer period; whether at the beginning of any given paried of time; whether to The Times directly agents, collectors or route men, or by mail.

be cured to stay cured until the blood is built up.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and sufferers from backache would do well to try this treatment before giving way to worry over a fancied organic disease. Rest and the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will correct most forms of backache, even rheumatic.

For people who work too hard or dance too much and sleep too little, better habits and a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are all that is needed to drive away the pains and aches that are warnings of a coming breakdown.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "Nervous Blooders," will be sent free, if you are interested, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store or by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

Use "Tiz" for puffed-up, burning, aching, calloused feet and corns.

Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tis" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?

"Tis" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn.

"Tis" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tis" is glorious for tired, aching, sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot

With the opening of a store at Nos 1500-1520 West Washington street yesterday afternoon, the Walter E. Smith Company now has three busi-ness establishments here. With its stores at Nos. 212-218 South Spring street and Nos. $26-828 South Broadthe business district and with its new store makes a bid for the trade in the vicinity of West Washington and Ellendale streets and the residential section surrounding that center.

Walter E. Smith said that the action of the company in opening this additional store is in line with the policy to build its future by catering to the convenience and satisfaction of Los Angeles residents. He added that there will be frequent and prompt delivery and thoroughly satisfactory service. In this connection, he added that the company's closing hour will be 7 p.m., instead of 6 o'cleck, so that patrons who leave their offices at the latter hour will be able to do their shopping before going home.

BURNING ITCHING

Eczema. From Hands to Elbows One Mass. Could Not Put Hands in Water. Could Not Sleep.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My daughter was poisoned by salt and it turned into eczema and from her lands to her elbows was one mass of red, burning, itching eruptions. It began with a rash which was of such a burning itching nature that at times she was nearly wild. For many weeks she could not put her hands in water and she could not sleep.

"She suffered intensely for several weeks and I tried wringing towels out of hot water and putting a rubber sheet across her, but she wasn't helped. The Doctor said to try Cuticura Soap and Olatment. I did and the itching and burning left her, and I used four boxes of Cuticura Olatment togesher with the Cuticura Soap and she was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Ida Brown, 7009 Eggleston Ave., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22, 1915.

with Mrs. E. Z. Macy.

Two hours later, in a hysterical condition, she sat in a cell in the County Jall, wondering what the outcome of her sudden fearful deed would be. The fate of her unborn child caused greater distress and alarm than her own. While she wondered, officers investigating the case, decided that she could not be held for murder, and laid the facts before Dist. Atty. Woolwine, who ordered her release immediately. In seven hours, the woman had passed through the most tragic crisis of her life.

Burton L. Herring was arrested yesterday on a charge of perjury in connection with his offer to give bonds for W. D. Young. He is the fifth so-called "straw" bondsman arrested in less than two weeks and, according to Special Investigator Chappelle, will not be the last man to be taken into custody on this charge before the end of the crusade against those offering improper security on bonds for prisoners.

Deputy District Attorney Joos issued the complaint, which charges that Herring declared ownership of certain property in Monterey county. He was qualifying as a bondsman for W.D. Young, who had also stated the ownership of property in the same territory. Investigation of county tax records showed that the property in question is owned by Miller & Lux.

After his arrest by Deputy Constable Bright, Herring was arraigned before Justice Brown. The latter fixed the date for hearing on Friday morning and set the ball at $2500.

A lady in England has been able to secure $5000 damages from a London newspaper because it wrongfully accused her of playing tennis with German officers interned at Donnington Hall. If somebody occupies a home five years without lease or rent and without having had notice to remove, he can lay claim to title.

CENSORSHIP ABSURDITIES.

Censorship of motion pictures that does not admit of a murder seems narrow. Nobody wants to revel in murder, but it Nobody wants to revel in murder, but it seems there must be a birth and a death in all big stories, because these incidents of life are tremendously significant. The development of a plot may require a killing, yet the tragedy be employed merely as the slightest incident in proving a strong and worthy motive. The stage can talk about something that has taken place; but pictures, being without words, are compelled to show the incidents supporting a play's motives. There is no use trying to make pictures any different from other human achievement or any better than human man achievement or any better than human nature proves itself to be in everything to try to restrict the expression of life through the motion-picture play, and no matter how they may endeavor to do so they will not succeed, because the author of a big story is not guessing at his characters or their conduct, but is presenting something as it was; and the director who films this story is simple being faithful to something as it was; and the director of the films this story is simply being faithful to life and he cannot do other than make it as it is. Censorship is ignorance; the public needs protection from the censors and THE OPEN CUT — MARSHALL STIM-SON'S MANY MISTAKES.

The admission made before the City Council by Marshall Stimson, secretary and attorney of the organization opposing the Bunker Hill open cut, that he had inadvertently misstated the law in telling property owners over his own signature that they would have to pay their assessments in cash if already bonded for any other improvement, though really superfluous in so far as the need for it went, was none so far as the need for it went, was none the less praiseworthy on that account. Mr. Stimson's prompt apology to the property owners for this serious slip of his pen and his expression of willingness that all who had already been influenced in any way by his misstatements to vote against the cut should be permitted to change their post-card ballots are equally to be commended.

should be permitted to change their postcard ballots are equally to be commended.

The storm of indignation and resentment aroused by the opposition organization's eleventh hour appeal to the property owners in the open cut assessment district has not yet downed, but will be considerably assuaged by Mr. Stimson's amende. The astonishment over the fact that a man considered of sufficient calibre to act as attorney in a fight aimed against so powerful and popular a movement should have been guilty of such ignorance of the law has not diminished. The City Attorney's office is to be thanked and congratulated for detecting and correcting so grave a misstatement of the laws affecting assessments and

Mr. Stimson in his statement before the Council insisted that he was animated by the desire to do the right thing in coming before it to contess and correct his mistakes. He indicated a willingness to assume personal responsibility for the errors made, declaring that the interests he was representing wanted the open cut question settled on its merits alone. Such being the case, neither Mr. Stimson nor any of those he represents can object to having other of the secretary-attorney's misstatements pointed out, and should be willing fo admit these errors along with the ones already acknowledged.

The only fault that can be found with

The only fault that can be found with Mr. Stimson's admissions and apologies to date is that they do not go far enough. The date is that they do not go far enough. The letter containing the now famous "Ten Reasons Against the Open Cut Scheme" and adorned with the signatures of A. P. Johnson, president, and Marshall Stimson, secretary, of the opposition organization, contained just exactly seven other misstatements besides the two corrected by the City Attorney and by Mr. Stimson himself. Four of the seven are as patently is error as Four of the seven are as patently in error as the two already checked up and almost as certainly calculated to work injustice and to prevent a fair and intelligent decision of the open cut project. Let Mr. Stimson make a good, thorough job of it while he is correcting his mistakes.

Mr. Stimson admits that he was wrong Mr. Stimson admits that he was wrong in saying that the assessments for the open cut would have to be paid by the property owners in cash. He is eager, he declares, that those deceived by his inadvertent misstatement should know that they will have twenty-five years instead of thirty days in which to pay all assessments of $25 or over. He says he also wishes to correct his misstatement that those wishing to redeem their bonds would have to pay two years' interest, as provided by law. So far, no good.

Let Mr. Stimson also acknowledge that he misstated the facts when he declared hat damages in the regrade zone were that damages in the regrade zone were to be apportioned on a basis of 50 per cent. of the assessed valuation. As a matter of fact, the plan, as worked out by the City Engineer, calls for an award on the basis of double the assessed valuation. There is a little discrepancy that ought in fairness to all concerned to be corrected. In the same connection, Mr. Stimson's letter declared that the total allowance for damages was $1,000,000. whereas the City Engineer's was $1,000,000, whereas the City Engineer's exact estimate was $1,382,560. Even a desire to express the total in rou will hardly justify so large a discrepancy between the actual figure and the one given Animated by the same desire for fair play and the exact, unqualified truth, let Mr. Stimson also correct his assertion that the City Engineer's total cost estimate of $4,600,000 for the open cut project "is prob-ably less than the actual cost." Mr. Stimson may ascertain by consulting the City Engineer and the City Council that the estimate as given out from the City Hall was purposely made about 25 per cent. higher than would seem to be reasonable. He may learn from the same sources that the cost of excavating and removing the earth in the regrade sone was computed on the basis of regrade sone was computed on the basis of 35 cents a cubic yard, whereas the city is now in possession of a bid from J. A. Hill, the leading excavation contractor in Los Angeles, to take the job at 20 cents and to give an unlimited bond for performance. Mr. Hill's offer absolutely settles the cost of the excavation. No one has even questioned it, at least not in the open. It can absolutely be shown that the open out project to the last detail, including all conceivable damages, can be put through at a cost within $3,000,000. Thus the assessment of every property owner, as named in the City Council's letter accompanying the straw vote postal cards, can safely be discounted by at least 25 per cent.

Mr. Stimson again made a most serious nisstatement, calculated if not corrected so all may know the truth, to help defeat the purposes of the straw vote, when he said that the $4,000,000 assessment did not pay the cost of cutting down individual lots got such an idea does not appear. The City Engineer's estimate included the cost of cutting down every cubic yard of dirt, both publicly and privately owned, from 120 feet north of First street to 120 feet so of Second and from Hill to Figueroa. The contractor, under the plan decided upon, would take the contract for the entire work would take the contract for the entire work at a flat rate. Mr. Stimson is committing the gravest kind of injustice as long as he permits this particular misstatement to go uncorrected. If he lacks the facts, let him this very day go to the City Hall and set himself right.

Mr. Stimson says in the letter to prop erty owners that it would take many years to complete the open cut and that the entire north end of the city would be in confusion all that time. J. A. Hill, than whom no one knows better, declares he is willing to give his bond that he can have either First or Second street opened clear through the hill in three months from the time he installs his equipment and that he can finish the entire contract in nine months. Here is something else that ought to be investigated by the opposition attorney, Mr. Stimson also opines that tunnels are just the thing for opening Bunker Hill to traffic and that tunnels ought by all means to be constructed. At a meeting of the City Club and that tunnels ought by all means to be constructed. At a meeting of the City Club two weeks ago it was pointed out to Mr. Stimson in a rather pointed manner that he had been one of the leading opponents of the tunnel programme of two years ago.

There is one of Mr. Stimson's misstatements that demands immediate correction not only by himself, but by those for whom he has been acting and that is his assertion that the "promoters of this scheme are largely property owners who have investlargely property owners who have invest ments on Hill street, or on Figueroa and Premont streets at the east and west ends of the cut." It is true that Hill, Pigueros and Fremont owners want the cut (they show their good sense in working for anything that will so benefit them,) but it is an affront to the downtown property owners and merchants who have contributed so much to the upbuilding of this community to infer that the project is merely a scheme for helping out a few owners on the streets named by Mr. Stimson. A petition signed by practically every merchant on Broadway and Spring, from Sixth street north, was presented to the City Council a week ago demanding the open cut and condemning those opposed to it. The movement for the cut was launched by Broadway and Spring out was launched by Broadway and Spring street owners and has had its principal downtown support from them. Property owners in large numbers west of the hill, from Figueros street to Vermont avenue, are working day and night for it, foreseeing the inevitable development activity that will follow throughout northwest Los Angeles as soon as that too-long-isolated territory has a direct outlet into the downtown shopping district. ping district.

There are other misstatements of mir significance in connection with the "Reasons" themselves, but these will be disposed of by the average intellect at a glance. If Mr. Stimson for himself and for his organisation will attend to the correction of the misstatements enumerated he will be doing the right thing in sufficiently full measure. Let these more glaring mistakes of Mr. Stimson's be squared, even as the two he corrected were squared, and the bewildered corrected were squared, and the bewildered and deceived property owners will indeed be in a position to form an opinion that will stand for something. The City Council would be doing a genuine public service if it would officially ask Mr. Stimson, while he is at it, to correct all of his errors.

COUNTRY WON'T FORGET 1914. U The specter of 1914 will rise for a generation, like Banquo's ghost, to refute the tariff theories of the dominant wing of the Democratic party. The details of that spec tacle are matters of record. They included the pitiful and profitiess search for work; the organization of relief measures in all our cities; public and private charity on an unprecedented scale to save the unem unprecedented scale to save the unemployed from starvation; imports that steadily increased while domestic production decreased; a trade balance that dwindled month by month until for the five months beginning with April, 1914, for the first time since 1893, another Democratic year, our imports exceeded our exports, and our long-established favorable trade balance was turned against us. Building and construction declined, dividends were reduced and business failures multiplied to an alarming extent. larming extent.

The trend was steadily from bad to worse

until a power more menacing than the en actments of a Democratic Congress inter-vened and the operations of the Under-wood-Simmons tariff law (Democratic free-trade) were suspended by the imperative needs of imperiled nations. The demand for munitions and foodstuffs changed a na-tion-wide depression into sudden and un-expected prosperity. The caretaker was driven out of idle mills, and eager workmen once more trooped through the open gates.

The business of the Sheriff was suspended and the business of the manufacturer was resumed. Wages once more found their way into workingmen's pockets, and trade resumed. Wages once more found their way into workingmen's pockets, and trade revived throughout the land.

Thus has it been taught once more that idle factories lead to mercantile failures; that employment is the pathway of prosperity. It has been demonstrated to this generation, as it was in 1894, that you cannot give away the American market and keep the workingmen of the country employed. You cannot abolish the wise regulation of foreign commerce and keep domestic trade on a high level. You cannot import the articles which supply the common needs of our life and maintain here the customary annual production. When you fill the mills of Europe with orders you empty the mills of the United States. When you give employment to European or oriental labor you drive American workingmen into the street. That this lesson is being learned by the American people at this time, as it was by a former generation, is evident from the verdict of the elections of 1915 and the realignment of protectionists under one realignment of protectionists under one banner. Victory will come to that banner next November and give us an administra-tion devoted to America first, last and all the time in every way. That is true "pre-

After a century of time Napoleon is still the arch-mittarist—and his renown, far from being eclipsed by the present conflict, seems to be greater than ever. There is consolation in the fact that hatred is not immortal. Time seems to soften all hatreds, to enhance great loves. So many of the world's saints and heroes have been the victims of hatred and persecution, from Christ Himself to the present day. HREE clear-cut issues now this country in our relations with Japan. Each one must be met on its merita. Too often it would seem that, purposely, they are being sadly confused. First the American policy of Oriental exquasion, special race laws and gentlemen's agreements must be squarely faced if cordial relations are to continue with our island neighbor of the Pacific. In the second place, those January who have alested ond place, those Japanese who have elect to make their home among us and wh we have allowed to enter are asking fair play against what they claim are sulting and unjust racial discrimination

Lastly, we are asking and demanding of Japan that she stand by her many treaties and solemn obligations guaranteeing the "Open Door" in China, which many believe is now to be abandoned through Japan's action in again reopening the old policy of spheres of influence in China.

Nothing will inuddle our international relations and good-will so much as to follow the specious, compromising and spineless suggestions of men who tell us that as we are not helping Japan to solve her problem in America and we deny her the equality of other immigrants, we should not endeavor to keep her out of China, her logical field of expansion. Will such a policy ever solve anything? Rather will it not engander future troubles far more serious? In this not a straight argument that one wrong, justifies another and that two wrongs make a right? Allow Japan a free hand in China, and we have paid the easy price of settlement of our other problems! No international difficulties can ever be settled in this manner, and the ultimate result will only be to make matters worse. Is it possible, many ask, to settle these issues separately and finally with justice to all? The answer is a decided, "Yes!"

Every country has the sovereign right, to regulate the numbers of those entering its doors so as to preserve what it considers to be (not what another country considers them to be) the essentials of a normal community. This nation, yes, Canada and Australia, will never allow an open, unrestricted Oriental immigration. Japan would undoubtedly exercise the same right against an unlimited Chinese immigration. A demand upon the part of any Asiatic country for unrestricted immigration into the United States would mean but one thingwar. In excluding or regulating immigration, however, great care should be taken to enact laws which will treat all nations alike, without invidious race distinctions. The percentage plan, that of limiting the number of immigrants entering from any race or nationality. The enactment of a percentage test would at once and for a as those possessed by immigrants of any other race.

With discrimination by race done away with in our immigration laws, with all peoples who enter sharing equally in our privileges, Japan's case against us would fall to the ground, and this country could present a clean slate, as Japan's diplomacy now is to trade what she considers a case against us for "a free hand in China," in tacking the third internstional difficulty.

Japan, in numerous treaties and obligations, has pledged herself to preserve the status quo and the "Open Door" in China. We are simply demanding that these promises be kept. Never have we objected to Japanese immigration into Manchuria or Mongolia. There is an immense field for tuture expansion. Why have Japanese not availed themselves of this opportunity? The United States has never objected to free and open business competition. We only ask good faith and a fair field. In decency to ourselves and as a good neighbor only ask good faith and a fair field. In decency to ourselves and as a good neighbor to China, we can ask no less. It is a matter of principle, not a matter of dollars and cents, as suggested by many advocates of present Japanese aggression, who claim that we only have a remote interest in the "Open Door" in China, as we only sell that country $25,000,000 in merchandise. "Peace at any price" in this case is billed at only $25,000,000 per annum.

The issues must/be kept distinct. Each issue must be settled on its merits, with justice to both sides. One wrong cannot be used to justify another. That principle of action, once granted and acted upon in our dealings with Japan, and we shall find that we have sold our birthright of fair and just dealing for an indigestible international mess of pottage.

will place on his conduct will be known next Monday, when a public hearing will be held.

Shedden is alleged to have called at the home of Mrs. R. E. Holland, No. 1180 West Thirty-ninth street, where he was apparently checking up dog licenses. He is charged with asking Mrs. Holland to sing the song referred to, and, when she refused, he is alleged to have sought entrance into the house on the pretext of wanting a drink of water. Mrs. Holland related the occurrence to her husband, who made a complaint to the Morals Efficiency Commission, and as a result Sheddon was suspended. Before his suspension he made a second visit to the house, according to Thomas Foss, investigator for the City Prosecutor, and made another effort to enter. This time Mr. Foss accosted him and asked him for a statement, but he is said to have declared he was willing to make his reply only to the commission.

"He will have other witnesses to show that Shedden conducted himself in an unbecoming manner," declared Mr. Foss last evening. "Only the fact that Mrs. Holland became excited and angry prevented me from arresting him at the time of his sec-arresting him at the time of his second visit."

According to Mr. Foss, he and a detective were waiting for Shedden on the occasion of the second visit. When Shedden appeared he asked for the money due the city for certain dog licenses. Mrs. Holland said she had not the money, and when, Mr. Foss stated, Shedden attempted to enter the house, the woman screamed and slammed the door.

Abolition of the Humane Animal Commission as a solution for the present situation, in which the Council has so far refused to confirm the appointment of three additional members, was suggested yesterday by members of the Council, and it was stated that in case of any further opposition to Thomas Foss, Aifred L. Bartlett and Jack Wilson, a proposal to abolish the board will be presented to the Public Welfare Committee.

Affidavit in Support of Motion in Land Fraud Cases to Forbid Operations Alleges Company Could be Supplied from Other Sources—Bitter Fight on Point Expected.

An affidavit was filed in the Federal Court yesterday, by Irvin F. Landis, naval officer in charge of the petroleum reserve for the navy, in this State, in support of the motion by the government for an order from the court to forbid further drilling of wells in the lands affected by the suits in the so-called land fraud cases. Arguments on the motion will be heard by Judge Bledsee next Tuesday.

Mr. Landis says that in 1910 the fuel requirements of the Southern Pacific Railroad were secured very largely from wells in private ownership. That from 1910 to 1916 there was accumulated in the hands of the marketers of California more than 40,000,000 gallons of oil over the current consumption, and that there is at this time 55,000,000 gallons in storage.

at this time be, over, over storage.

He further says that the Southern Pacific Railroad in 1910 consumed not less than 10,000,000 barrels of oil. Today there is being derived from the oil lands of the railroad company an amount of oil equivalent to that annually consumed by the railroad. It is further declared that the railroad had brought on its large production in the face of the enormous over-producthe face of the enormous over-produ-tion of the State, and to the detrime tion of the State, and to the detriment of the government's and the State's best interests. The railroad company, says the affidavit, persistently and consistently kept from ten to fifty strings of tools working in the oil lands not touched before 1916, while every other interest in California has been required to suspend drilling, and that while it does not cost the company more than from $30,000 to $40,000 to drill a well, it costs others sometimes in the neighborhood of $100,000.

It is expected the fight on the mo-sometimes in the neighborhood of $100,000. It is expected the fight on the motion of the government will be one of the bitterest in the oil controversy. The Southern Pacific Company expects to offer a number of counter artidavita, indicating that the Kern Trading and Oil Company, the oil operating concern of the corporation, would be irreparably damaged by the allowance of the motion, and that if the government should finally secure a judgment against the company, it is financially responsible and the money could be collected without hampering and destroying the industry years before the issues are finally determined.

Choose the Style That Most Becomes You in Millinery

A superb collection of new Hats for spring, in great variety and with exceptional originality and individuality of treatment is here. One can transfer one's preference from a large Sailor, of a soft fabric, undulating with every motion, to a tall, close-fitting Hat of lacquered straw, stiff and straight and primly trimmed-and feel that the change is well within the prescribed fashions of the season.

Women are noticing with pleasure, Hats in the quaint effects which are the natural complements of the Louis XV and "1830" fashions in frocks; the oddity of enameled flowers and foliage of straw; the reinstatement of ostrich feathers; the generous use of ribbons which are always lovely; and the diversity of flares and rolls and daringly turned brims that so decidedly mark the change to another season. You can expect to see here the best models moderately

It is a question of purpose to be achieved and the character of the sub-flect matter which is more effectively to be used under existing circum-lowed one another in quick succession.

She carried this same spirit out, though perhaps with not always equal opportunity, in nearly all the other numbers on the programme. She showed herself capable, too, of accommodating her art readily to the classically exquisite "Adelaide" and other like numbers.

Her voice is possessed of a flame-like warmth that is finely adapted for the type of song she essays; its smoothness is not altogether too perfect, as also befits a programme such as she gave last night, and the nature of her other attributes.

Will Garroway did unusually satisfactory work at the piano, Paul Eisler assisted in two of his own compositions, "Within Thine Eyes" and "Marching Sons." which proved pleasing novelties.

NEED PRESENT PLANT.

NEED PRESENT PLANT.

In the afternoon session C. P. Houghton, vice-president of the corporation, testified as to the history of the corporation and development of the natural gas problem. He stated that the total gas service would have been interrupted last winter during the time of breaks in the natural gas pipe lines had it not been for the artificial gas plants.

Mr. Houghton read from contracts covering the price of oil, and showed that when the original contract was entered into for the purchase of gas it would have been a cheaper fuel than the oil. He said that, due to slump in oil prices caused by the opening of the war, this gas had cost a little more than the oil could have been purchased for, but that because of raise in oil prices gas will probably be cheaper next year than oil fuel.

De Wolf Hopper, the most enter-taining talker on the American stage today, told some of his very best sto-ries at the Majestic last night. The house shricked at the story of the minstrel troupe who was housed in the church by the small-town hotel-keeper, who had not room in his hoof lowest fair rate for the supply of gas estimated upon its value as a light and heat producer.

Herbert J. Goudge, appearing for the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, summarised the points he proposed to introduce as follows:

That the corporation is anxious to distribute gas of high heating value, and is willing to distribute the 1000 B.T.U. gas at proper rates.

That in the matter of valuation, all were in strict accord that the valuation of the engineers of the Railroad Commission was within one-tent of 1 per cent. of that of the corporation's experts, and also very close to the appraisal of William Mulholland.

That the commission's additing department, under direction of L. R. Reynolds, had completed its examination of the corporation's books, and that his finding as to historical book cost agreed within 2½ per cent. of the reproduction valuation of the corporation's books, and that his finding as to historical book cost agreed within 2½ per cent. of the reproduction valuation of the commission's engineers.

SHIPPING. HARBOR OF LOS ANGELES.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 21.—The heavy covering movement, which recently left the cotday, means only one thing, and that is that the short interest is about eliminated. Taking the situation as it is, aside from this talk of possible peace this year, not a few would be inclined to sell the market owing to the relatively high prices, the scarcity of exports, duliness of speculation, and the reasonable certainty that with cotton around $60.00 a bale, the South knowing it to be a cash gold crop all over the world, and that it is the most profitable product that the South now raises, will plant a considerably increased acreage. Believers in lower prices point to the statistics showing a marked decrease in supplies as compared to last year. They recall the fact that last year's stocks were about normally large. New Orleans and Memphis dispatches report a slackening demand draws near its close, it is natural to suppose that the demand tor cotton for March shipment will decrease, and this may affect the price of both spots and

CURE FOR CRIME. SEEKS OPERATION.

Arthur Duarte, confessed kieptomaniac, may have his wish for an operation fulfilled. When brought before Judge Willis for sustance, yesterday, he declared that a serious injury many years ago had caused his unnatural desire to steal, and that an operation to remove skull obstruction of his brain might cure him.

Judge Willis decided to place the young man under investigation by alienists at the County Hospital, and ordered him taken to that institution for a week. "If your story is verified, I will advise the operation. Otherwise I shall be forced to imprison you, not so much to punish you, but in order to protect society from your indiscretions," declared the court.

Mr. Nebenshal claimed that plumbing, barber chairs, mirrors, sweater, overcoat and cash register, among other things, were taken out, and for the alleged trespass he brought the action which was tried some days ago and decided yesterday. The evidence showed that a pane of glass had been removed by which entrance into the shop was effected.

Immergiuck & Co., set up in their answer that the shop was entered peaceably and in good faith, for the reason that the rent of $56 a month had not been paid.

The case against Bryan arose when he sought to make an entry in the local Land Office. Under the rulings of the court his homestead rights were exhausted in Oklahoma. The action has been pending in the local Federal courts more than a year. It is the first time that the rights of a homesteader have been definitely fixed in this district, and the question settled whether it is possible for an entryman to sell his homesteady and retain his right to re-enter another where the amount received for the relinquishment exceeds the value of the improvements.

ON INDUSTRIAL BOARD.

The Council refused yesterday to confirm the appointment of Mrs. Florence S. MacCormick as a member of the Industrial Commission until such time as it can ascertain whether or not the personnel of the commission is in conformity with the ordinance providing for its appointment. Councilman Wright raised the question, saying that several members of the commission have asked that no action be taken by the Council until they can confer with Mayor Sebastian, who is now out of the city.

Councilman Wheeler said there are likely to be two more vacancies on the commission and the matter of adjusting the personnel to comply with the ordinance can be checked when the new appointments are made. Mr. Wheeler said after the session that in the probable vacancies matter he referred to one member of the commission who will likely resign soon or be removed in case he refuses to resign, and the other is a member who has thus far failed to attend any make way for a person more interested.

C. H. McGwire and W. A. Anderson were certified to the Public Utilities Board yesterday by the Civil Service Commission for appointment as assistant their engineer for the board. Mr. McGwire now holds the position under emergency appointment and Mr. Anderson is his assistant.

Refusal of the government to permit the construction of a 100-foot street through the government reservation at the harbor made it necessary yesterday for the Council to change its plans for the roadway contemplated and the City Engineer will provide for an 30-foot thoroughtare. The Council appropriated $500 yesterday for the purchase of two dozen rifies for the police department.

On recommendation of the Finance Committee, the Council yesterday turned over the balance of the San Fernando road funds to the City Engineer. This amounted to $16,860 and the money comes from the $25,600 road tax money collected by the county on assessments made prior to annexation of the San Fernando district.

The Council yesterday confirmed the appointment of Jack Wilson as a member of the Rumane Animal Commission. The names of Thomas Foss and Alfred L. Bartlett will come up for confirmation next Friday.

The Los Angeles Ad Club, at its weekly luncheon yesterday, at the Clarke Hotel, heard a gingery speech by E. J. Richards, president of the Long Beach Ad Club, who had come, he said, as the bearer of a message to all Southern California, from the general committee of all civic and business organizations of Long Beach. He said that the general committee was organized to help the City Commissioners when they had knotty problems to solve, and to help the manufacturers, merchants and citizens, and, further, to lend a helping hand to the Southland generally.

He announced an invitation from the general Committee. George J. Denis will argue for the appointment of a receiver on behalf of W. L. Williams of Pasadena, an intervenor, who, it is alleged, has $45,000 in the company. Albert Ball will also argue for the McLanea, in behalf of a receiver.

The point in yesterday's argument was that if any alleged acts of wrong-doing were perpetrated by the management of the corporation, they were performed before the McLanes were stockholders, and therefore they have no remedy in a Federal court; thuat the action belongs to the State court on a question of jurisdiction, if a all.
